

Bar-Ilan University

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

Between: - The Charta of Judeche, based in Catania, Via Francesco Riso n. 26, in the person of its President and legal representative pro - tempore, lawyer Baruch Triolo;

The International Institute of Jewish Culture, based in Catania, Via Francesco Riso n. 26, in the person of its President and legal representative pro - tempore, Mr. Attilio Funaro;

and

Bar Ilan University, based in Ramat Gan, ISRAEL, in the person of its Vice President for Research and legal representative pro - tempore, Prof. Benjamin Ehrenberg;

WHEREAS

That the Charta de le Judeche is a territorial body actively engaged in the development of Jewish sites, their culture and traditions, and organizes the return of the communities in the archaeological sites of Sicily and Calabria;

That the International Institute is a scientific organization aimed at seeking and deepening of Jewish culture from the date of the establishment of Judeche and their renewal in a new model suitable for the present time and future one;

That Bar Ilan is an Israeli university with new and modern concepts which can actively contribute through its own departments, to the rebirth of scientific, cultural and economic development of Judeche also in terms of new settlements;

Given the above facts, they are an integral part of this Protocol, and the parties, as described above, undertake mutual cooperation, each according to its skills, for the pursuit of these objectives in order to:

1) Replicate, where possible, the relevant departments of Bar Ilan University, in the territories of the Charta of Judeche, in order to internationalize the mentioned territories, as well as to turn them to their scientific activities according to the Israeli model and Hebrew in particular, and to help and provide the best Jewish impression to the initiatives of the Charta and the International Institute. For these and other reasons, if Bar Ilan University deems this appropriate, it will also create new departments at other Italian communities, with all the care and expense of the proponents Jewish Institutions. These activities will also determine the onset of economic initiatives, to which the Bar Ilan University will participate in because of its scientific contribution and organization, with shares that will be determined by mutual agreement.

2) Internationalizing the territories of the Charta of Judeche, according to the Israeli model, also in order to achieve scientific and cultural initiatives aimed at occupying the large areas of research and development, till free and available to the promotion by foreign entities.

3) Cultivate together with the Jewish institutions in southern Italy, the story of Judeche, even in archaeological perspective, also in order to restore the settlements in remembrance of those territories that were the most important Jewish settlements in the Mediterranean area from 200 to 1500.

4) Work actively to all those cultural and scientific initiatives that are going to determine, according to a calendar of events that will be agreed from time to time among the parties.

It is understood that the above agreement does not involve any financial commitment for any of the signatory parties.

This Protocol may be extended and / or modified on the agreement of all the above subjects and expressed in writing.

Read, confirmed and signed.

Catania - Ramat Gan 07 January 2015 - 5775

Bar Ilan University

.....Prof. Benjamin Ehrenberg
.....Vice President for Research
.....Bar-Ilan University

International Institute of Jewish Culture

.....

Charta of Judeche

.....

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

Between: - The Charta of Judeche, based in Catania, Via Francesco Riso n. 26, in the person of its President and legal representative pro - tempore, lawyer Baruch Triolo;

The International Institute of Jewish Culture, based in Catania, Via Francesco Riso n. 26, in the person of its President and legal representative pro - tempore, Mr. Attilio Funaro;

and

Bar Ilan University, based in Ramat Gan, ISRAEL, in the person of its Vice President for Research and legal representative pro - tempore, Prof. Benjamin Ehrenberg;

WHEREAS

That the Charta de le Judeche is a territorial body actively engaged in the development of Jewish sites, their culture and traditions, and organizes the return of the communities in the archaeological sites of Sicily and Calabria;

That the International Institute is a scientific organization aimed at seeking and deepening of Jewish culture from the date of the establishment of Judeche and their renewal in a new model suitable for the present time and future one;

That Bar Ilan is an Israeli university with new and modern concepts which can actively contribute through its own departments, to the rebirth of scientific, cultural and economic development of Judeche also in terms of new settlements;

Given the above facts, they are an integral part of this Protocol, and the parties, as described above, undertake mutual cooperation, each according to its skills, for the pursuit of these objectives in order to:

1) Replicate, where possible, the relevant departments of Bar Ilan University, in the territories of the Charta of Judeche, in order to internationalize the mentioned territories, as well as to turn them to their scientific activities according to the Israeli model and Hebrew in particular, and to help and provide the best Jewish impression to the initiatives of the Charta and the International Institute. For these and other reasons, if Bar Ilan University deems this appropriate, it will also create new departments at other Italian communities, with all the care and expense of the proponents Jewish Institutions. These activities will also determine the onset of economic initiatives, to which the Bar Ilan University will participate in because of its scientific contribution and organization, with shares that will be determined by mutual agreement.

2) Internationalizing the territories of the Charta of Judeche, according to the Israeli model, also in order to achieve scientific and cultural initiatives aimed at occupying the large areas of research and development, till free and available to the promotion by foreign entities.

3) Cultivate together with the Jewish institutions in southern Italy, the story of Judeche, even in archaeological perspective, also in order to restore the settlements in remembrance of those territories that were the most important Jewish settlements in the Mediterranean area from 200 to 1500.

4) Work actively to all those cultural and scientific initiatives that are going to determine, according to a calendar of events that will be agreed from time to time among the parties.

It is understood that the above agreement does not involve any financial commitment for any of the signatory parties.

This Protocol may be extended and / or modified on the agreement of all the above subjects and expressed in writing.

Read, confirmed and signed.

Catania - Ramat Gan 07 January 2015 - 5775

Bar Ilan University

..... Prof. Benjamin Ehrenberg
..... Vice President for Research
..... Bar-Ilan University

International Institute of Jewish Culture

..... Amos Hilo
.....

Charta of Judeche

..... Amos Hilo
.....